Henry (Harry) Dingle M.M.

Mural
Griffith War Memorial Museum
Banna Avenue Griffith NSW 2680

Harry was granted Farm 55 near Hanwood, Griffith NSW in May 1913.

Walking off and forfeiting his block he enlisted for World War 1 in June 1915 at age 21 serving in the 1st Field Ambulance Reinforcements on the Western Front.

He was awarded the Victory Medal and achieved the rank of 2nd Lieutenant.

While instructing, Harry was accidentally killed age 23 during a training exercise at Pozieres, France.

He is buried at the Dernancourt Communal Cemetery, France

Info Mural

Fresh troops from the 1st Australian Division, walking on a duckboard track, move toward the front line near Hooge in the Ypres Sector to fight in the Battle of Broodseinde, Belgium.

Photo image Frank Hurley, October 5, 1917. (source AWM)